Project Title: Folklore and its Story

I will be building this website as multiple pages so that the information is nicely organized.

Wikipedia Link: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Folklore>

Content Architecture:

Home Page/Introduction: Here I will include sections from the definition of folk to introduce the topic to the reader

Verbal Tradition: This section will discuss the tradition of sharing folk tales verbally, including the history of sharing folktales visually.

Customs: As a genre of folklore, this section will explore how folklore is a part of cultural customs, as a celebration, a sharing of stories, and a preservation of history.

Childlore and games: A a genre of folklore, this section will explore how children share their own folktales outside of adult supervision. For example, the sharing of popular games, rhymes, and dances.

Conclusion: Finally this section will close out the story of Folklore as a genre

Sources: Here I will include sources for the article.
